

SUGARLOAF'S 23RD ANNUAL INDOOR TRACK SERIES

FIRST MEET OF YEAR DRAWS THIRD-LARGEST TURNOUT OF ALL-TIME

Northampton - (Jan. 10, 2010)

The 2010 SMAC Indoor Track Series started off with a bang with the third-largest crowd in the 23 year history of the meets: 225 athletes. Perhaps it is the "Usain Bolt" effect because the 55 meters alone had an amazing 100 competitors overall and the times were very impressive.

Not to be outdone, however, was Alexander Engel of Bryant College, who won the 200 and 400 meter dashes for the men with the No. 3 and No. 2 times of all-time at these meets.

Engel just missed meet records in both events, running the 200 in 22.7 for the No. 3 time all-time and the 400 in 49.7 for the No. 2 time of all-time.

Amherst College track coach and former world-class miler Erik Nedeau of Belchertown won the men's mile in 4:27.4.

Former Pittsfield High star Zachary Gordon took the men's 800 with a very solid 2:02.1.

After sweeping the men's high jump in the 2009 series, Joe Dubuc of South Hadley picked up right where he left off with a win in the first meet of 2010 in 5' 10".

Chris Brida had a great start to his 2010 season with a win the men's long jump in 20' 9 1/2", just missing his personal best of 21' 2" at these meets.

Aaron Flamino of Manchester, Connecticut, who has been a long-time competitor in these meets, won the men's 3000 meters by a wide margin in 9:37.7.

SMAC INDOOR TRACK SERIES

TABIN RULES THE 55: Second fastest ever

Northampton - Smith College Indoor Track
(January 10, 2010)

Brianna Tabin of South Hadley easily had the top women's performance in the first meet of the SMAC Indoor Track Series by running the second fastest 55 meters of all-time in 7.0 seconds. Only former world-class hurdler Ime Akpan of Nigeria has run a faster time in the history of these meets.

Another great performance among the women was the meet record breaking performance in the women's 4 x 200 meter relay by the Y-Speed Team of Springfield. Led off by superstar sprinter Jenn Christian and followed by Targie Gervais, Shenika Lewis and Manashia Jones, the Y-Speed "A" team blazed to a record time of 1:53.4.

In a rare occurrence, the women's high jump had three of the top 10 women of all-time with meet record holder Jennifer Hawkes, No. 2 all-time Marlee Berg and No. 6 all-time Erica Belanger competing head-to-head. Hawkes prevailed for the win in a near-record performance of 5' 6".
